Composer of "The Ostende."

Moderato.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a melody in treble clef, starting with a quarter note G4, followed by eighth notes A4, B4, and C5, then a quarter rest, and finally a half note G4. The left hand plays a bass line in bass clef, starting with a quarter note G2, followed by eighth notes A2, B2, and C3, then a quarter rest, and finally a half note G2. The tempo is marked 'Moderato' and the dynamics include 'f' (forte) and 'fz' (forzando).

The first two lines of the song are set to music. The vocal line is in treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in bass clef. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The dynamics include 'mp' (mezzo-piano) and 'mf' (mezzo-forte). The lyrics are:

1. Can't you see I'm sad and lone-ly, I love no one but you,

2. Take a stroll with me some eve-ning, and we can have a chat,

The last two lines of the song are set to music. The vocal line is in treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in bass clef. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The dynamics include 'p' (piano). The lyrics are:

Now to win your heart, my dear-ie, just tell me what to do,

Hap-py we will be to- geth-er in our dear co- sy flat,

Life to me is dark and drear-y, And with-out you, I'm blue The I'll be good and kind to you dear, From you I'll nev-er roam Now

mp mf

whole day long, I'll sing this song, with love so true;
would you care, your life to share, I'm all a-lone:

rall. a tempo. rit.

CHORUS.

Could you learn to love me dear-ie, Just the same as I love you, For my mp a tempo

heart beats for you on - ly and my love is true; 'Cause I like your style and smile dear, and your eyes of ba - by blue, Could you learn to love me, dear - ie, just as I love you. — Could you you. —

Could you. 3.
